What should come in the place of blank number (4)?

In the given passage, some words have been deleted. Read the passage intently and choose the most appropriate option to fill in each blank:

Digital governance, once the preserve of national security councils and technical committees, has metamorphosed into a stage for global power contestation. What presents itself as multilateral dialogue often (1) _____ the architecture of technological colonialism—where data sovereignty is negotiated by those who own the infrastructure, not those who generate the content. The algorithmic lens becomes a moral arbiter only when applied to Southern communities; in Northern markets, it is reclassified as "innovation imperative." Regulatory frameworks are not impervious to this asymmetry. Platform capital flows through channels engineered by market dominance, not public welfare. Consent becomes a (2) _____, where users from vulnerable economies perform agreement to access services, rather than exercise meaningful choice. "Digital inclusion," meanwhile, hovers like a slogan—cited routinely, defined loosely. In such a paradigm, techno-optimism masks the fractured geography of access. Algorithms sort marginalised communities with efficiency, but remain insensible to the (3) _____ exclusions embedded in their training data. Surveillance infrastructures, too, offer the pretence of safety—one state's security apparatus "legitimised" by another's emergency. But surveillance does not dismantle fear; it merely redistributes it. To resist digital imperialism is to interrogate the neutrality of platforms and contest the benevolence of standards. Until the language of digital rights is (4) _____, and not merely amended, any technology governance initiative risks becoming a theatre of (5) _____, not transformation.

(a) echoed
(b) suppressed
(c) overhauled
(d) archived
